ABOUT THE PRESENTERS

Officer Jermaine Galloway, known as the “Tall Cop”, is a nationally and internationally recognized presenter, national award winner and resource for those involved with prevention, education, treatment and enforcement. Officer Galloway began his law enforcement career in Idaho in 1997 and has more than 16 years experience in alcohol and drug education, enforcement and prevention. As a full time trainer, Officer Galloway currently dedicates thousands of hours to community scans, research and substance abuse identification in large and rural communities across the country. While in law enforcement, Officer Galloway was a member of the DUI task force, a CSI, and a field-training officer.

Officer Galloway created his own alcohol and substance abuse prevention and identification program called the “You Can’t Stop What You Don’t Know™” program. Officer Galloway displays over 50-100 visual aids for attendees to view, hold and become familiar with throughout each presentation.

In addition to creating and starting two non-profit organizations, Officer Galloway was a past Vice President of an alcohol and drug free prevention coalition in Idaho and was a member of the Idaho statewide-impaired driving task force. Officer Galloway is also a past board member of the National Liquor Law Enforcement Association (NLLEA).

ABOUT THE PRESENTERS

Whitney Chrisman is a counselor at Bryan Independence Center where she works with adolescents and adults who have been diagnosed with a substance abuse disorder. She provides group and individual therapy for short-term residential, partial care and outpatient clients. Whitney received her Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from the University of Nebraska, and completed her Master of Arts in Counseling from Doane University. Prior to joining Bryan Independence Center, Whitney worked at Better Living Counseling Services as a Training Specialist in Resource Development. Whitney previously presented at the Annual Convention of the Association for Behavior and Cognitive Therapies and at numerous SCIP trainings and events.

Richard Salter Jr. is the Special Agent in Charge (SAC) of the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) Omaha Field Division, established in July of 2018. In his role, SAC Salter is responsible for the operational, administrative and financial management of DEA offices in the “Omaha Division” which encompasses the five-state region of Iowa, Nebraska, Minnesota, South Dakota and North Dakota. SAC Salter began his career in law enforcement in 1986 with the University of Texas Police System. In 1992, SAC Salter started his career with the Drug Enforcement Administration in Houston, Texas. Over the ensuing 27 years, SAC Salter served as special agent in San Antonio, Texas, Little Rock, Arkansas, Lorton, Virginia, and Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. He received a Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice from the University of Texas at San Antonio in 1988 and has completed several leadership and telecommunications trainings.
