KEYNOTE

Dr. Scott Poland is a Professor at the College of Psychology and is Co-Director of the Suicide and Violence Prevention Office at Nova Southeastern University, Fort Lauderdale, Florida. Dr. Poland is a licensed psychologist internationally recognized as an expert on youth suicide, self-injury, school violence, school safety, threat assessment and school crisis.

Dr. Poland will discuss how to develop a comprehensive best practices model for youth suicide prevention, intervention and postvention in the schools that includes screenings and comprehensive assessment. He will also discuss the importance of collaboration with mental health service providers for re-entry planning and postvention practices. Legal cases in which schools were sued following a youth suicide will be presented.

ABOUT THE PRESENTERS

Conner Oberhauser is a 16-year old, Junior, from Twin River High School in Genoa, Nebraska. In February, 2018, he attempted suicide. Now, he is sharing his story of hope and healing with others to let them know they are not alone and to end the stigma surrounding mental illness. He will also share his personal battle with anxiety and depression.

Jeremy and Bailey Koch had a fairytale beginning. High school sweethearts, they married in 2004 while both in college. They started their family in 2006, but after their second son arrived in 2009, Jeremy's mental health took a drastic turn. From 2009 to 2015, Jeremy and Bailey lived with a dark secret. During those years, Jeremy survived five suicide attempts until the couple finally found hope and healing in sharing their faith and truth through the acceptance of help.
