

School Community Intervention and Prevention Presents

Group Counseling for Youth—Tips & Techniques

Friday, September 13, 2019

This training will help providers determine when it is and isn't appropriate to do group therapy with youth. Providers will also learn interactive group techniques that will create more engagement within the group setting and elicit effective experiences for group members. Participants will have the opportunity to view and practice effective skills and techniques for working with youth in a group setting.

OBJECTIVES

At the end of this training, participants will:

- Identify techniques to use to elicit participations from clients in a group setting.
- Recognize the advantages of the group setting to create an experience for clients
- Determine when it is and is not appropriate to recommend group therapy for youth clients
- Utilize effective skills and techniques for working with youth in a group setting
